Mission
The Department of Greek Life recognizes those organizations that are committed to the Pillars of Greek Life. The Department seeks to prepare students for society by challenging the Fraternity and Sorority Community membership to live up to those highest principles and ideals upon which their respective organizations were founded.

History
NC State’s first fraternity, Sigma Nu, was founded in 1895 and its first women’s fraternity, Sigma Kappa, was founded in 1960. Alpha Phi Alpha, the first historically African-American fraternity, was founded in 1971. The original Fraternity Court housing area opened in 1964 with 12 houses, and additional facilities were added in 1973 and 1983. The Department of Greek Life was created in 1997 to work with all undergraduate fraternities and sororities as well as manage the Greek Court housing area. In 2008, the Department began work on a redevelopment of fraternity and sorority housing and the area was officially renamed Greek Village.
